

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Anita Lindsay, Communications Vice President
webmaster@jllansing.org

The Junior League of Lansing has announced the Board of Directors for the 2014-15 year. President Susan Lupo, who succeeds Ann Vogelsang, will lead the board. Lupo will serve a one-year term.

Joining Lupo is a group of women with a variety of personal, educational, and professional backgrounds who share the organization's commitment to community service. They are: Michelle Lange, President Elect; Nanette Naser, Secretary; Anita Lindsay, Communications Vice President; Kelly Miller, Community Vice President; Colleen Kushmaul, Education Vice President; Heather Frick, Fund Development Vice President; Jackie Lillis - Warwick, Membership Vice President; Patricia Scott, Treasurer; Jane Bitsicas, Sustaining Advisor.

Lupo and the Board of Directors will lead the organization this year in addressing the community's toughest challenges. "I truly believe in all the wonderful work the Junior League does in Lansing, and I am honored to be a part of this great organization. This year, the League will contribute hundreds of volunteer hours, direct financial support, numerous community service projects, community response grants, community collaborations and Done In A Day activities in the Lansing community."

Lupo joined the Junior League of Lansing in 2005 and has served in several leadership positions including Nominating Chair, Placement Chair, Membership Vice President and President-elect. She resides in East Lansing with her husband, Tony, and is the Accounts Receivable Manager for Lansing Ophthalmology and the Michigan Surgical Center.

The Junior League of Lansing is a non-profit organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

For more information about the Junior League of Lansing, or to inquire about becoming a member, visit the website at jllansing.org.

The Junior League of Lansing, Michigan is a non-profit organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective use of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

###